WASHINGTON MAN IS KILLED WHEN MACHINE UPSETS

Auto Skids On Icy Road And Clarence Chamberlain Is Pinned In Wreckage.

Disregarding the pleadings of his wife, who urged him not to take the trip because of the icy roads, Clarence W. Chamberlain, 39, of Washington, D. C., was fatally injured when the sedan he was driving skidded from an ice-covered stretch of road on a curve, just south of the Mason and Dixon line, and upset, Saturday afternoon, between 3 and 4 o'clock. Chamberlain died while being taken to the office of a Littlestown physician.

Accompanied by John Hoff, a Washington attorney, Chamberlain left the Capital City shortly after 12 o'clock, to visit Milton Krug, of Littlestown, who was a friend of both the Washingtonians.

Wife, Fearful

Before Chamberlain left home, his wife pleaded with him not to go, because, it is stated, she heard the roads in northern Maryland and southern Pennsylvania were icy, making motoring dangerous. Chamberlain laughed aside her fears, telling her that he would not be gone long and that he would be home before evening.

According to the story of the accident, as related to John W. Little, Littlestown undertaker, Hoff, perceiving a sharp curve ahead, just south of the Mason and Dixon line, warned Chamberlain to cut down the speed of the machine. No sooner had Hoff given the warning, than Chamberlain applied the brakes, just as the machine reached the curve, which was covered with ice.

Dies On Way

The heavy sedan spun around, left the highway, crashed into a fence and upset. Hoff escaped without a scratch, but Chamberlain was pinned beneath the wreckage, his head protruding from the window at the driver's seat. Passing motorists helped Hoff to raise the car off his companion and the fatally injured man, unconscious, but still breathing, was placed in another machine, and the run to a doctor's office in Littlestown was started.

Before Littlestown was reached, however, Hoff said that Chamberlain died. At the office of Dr. H. S. Crouse, Littlestown, it was found that Chamberlain was dead, and his body was taken to Mr. Little's undertaking parlors, from where it was taken to his home in Washington.

Chamberlain is survived by his mother, wife and four daughters. He was a tile setter by trade.

Dr. E. A. Miller, of Gettysburg, county coroner, was notified of the man's death, and went to Littlestown, where he viewed the body. He pronounced death due to a fractured skull.

FOUR GOING TO FARMING SCHOOL

Four young Adams countians have signed up with R. E. Underwood, county farm agent, for the "short course" in agriculture at State College, beginning January 8. Applications for admission to the course will be received up to the day of its opening, it is stated.

The course, which runs for eight weeks, costs approximately $110, exclusive of car fare to and from the college, and offers studies in soils, farm crops, poultry, fruit and vegetable gardening, dairying and the care and operation of farm machinery.

LOCAL RESIDENT DIES IN PHILLY

Mrs. Jane M. Geiselman, 86, Dies at Home of Her Granddaughter in Philadelphia.

While on an indefinite visit at the home of her granddaughter, Mrs. Edna Crockett, Philadelphia, Mrs. Jane M. Geiselman, widow of Craig Geiselman, life-long residents of Gettysburg, died Sunday afternoon, following a lingering illness due to the infirmities of age. Mrs. Geiselman was 86 years of age.

Mrs. Geiselman went to Philadelphia on December 5, to pass an indefinite time with her granddaughter, Mrs. Crockett. She became seriously ill while in the city, and did not recover sufficiently to return home.

The deceased is survived by one son, Harry Geiselman, of Niles, Ohio; two grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. Her husband died two years ago.

The body will arrive here this evening at 9:20 o'clock over the Philadelphia and Reading railroad, and be taken to her home, 209 West Middle street, from where funeral services will be held, the time of which has not been fixed.

HOWARD ARMOR HURT IN CRASH

Howard Armor, East Middle street, manager of Natural Springs Park, suffered a severely sprained leg and numerous bruises about the body, when the automobile in which he was a passenger left the road, crashed through a fence and hit a tree, this side of Dillsburg, early Saturday evening. The car was driven by Dr. Loudenslager, of Harrisburg, who was also cut about the face by flying glass. Two other occupants of the car were shaken up, but were otherwise unhurt.

Mr. Armor was taken to the home of Miss Margaret Loudenslager, Harrisburg, his fiancée, where he is convalescing.

Chimney Blaze In Masonic Building

Fire in the chimney of the Masonic building, Center Square, Saturday evening, was extinguished by the use of chemicals, without damage to the building. The firemen experienced difficulty in reaching the top of the chimney, and it was necessary for some of the firemen to slide from the trapdoor in the roof to the chimney, a hazardous undertaking, since a false footing or misstep would have meant a fall of 40 feet.

As soon as the fire was discovered, salt was thrown on the furnace fire, and this, together with the chemicals, extinguished the blaze.

All members of the American Legion and their wives, all members of the woman's auxiliary, and all members of the 40-8 and their wives or lady friends are invited to attend the card social and dance in the 40-8 rooms tomorrow evening. FORMER LOCAL WOMAN INJURED

Mrs. Ellen Cullison, Harrisburg, Struck by Two Machines and Jammed Through Window.

BREAKS RIGHT LEG

Mrs. Ellen Cullison, 66, Harrisburg, sustained a broken right leg above the angle, numerous bruises and possible internal injuries when she was struck by two automobiles and jammed through a plate glass window of a meat market in Harrisburg Saturday. Mrs. Cullison is the mother of Howard Cullison, this city, and formerly resided here. The Harrisburg Telegraph, of Saturday, published the following:

"Jammed against a building when struck by two automobiles thrown on the pavement by force of a collision, Mrs. Ellen Cullison, 66, 334 South Fourteenth street, is in a serious condition at the Harrisburg Hospital suffering from a broken right leg and possible internal injuries.

"The woman was going to a store in Derry street, when machines driven by Mark M. Kline, 534 South Cameron street, and W. E. Zeiders, 1316 Swatara street, rammed into each other shortly after 10 o'clock. The front wheels and the machines crashed across the pavement. The cars caught Mrs. Cullison as she was passing in the middle of the sidewalk and pinned her against the glass front of a meat market, breaking the large plate glass.

Continues Into Lot

"The car driven by Zeiders broke loose after crushing the woman and continued down the pavement into a vacant lot between Fourteenth street and Fifteenth street, crashing into a tree. Mrs. Cullison was taken to the office of a nearby physician and an ambulance summoned. Following an examination, it was found she was suffering from a broken right leg above the ankle, numerous bruises and possible internal injuries.

"The drivers of the two machines reported the accident to the police. Kline said his car had been parked along the curb on the south side of Derry street. As he started to pull away from the place, a machine driven by Zeiders rounded Fourteenth street and locked wheels with his machine. Both drivers were unable to guide their machines and they slid across the icy pavement before breaking away. Both cars were damaged."

NO AGE LIMIT FOR ELK PARTY

Children From First Grade to Senior in High School Eligible to Attend Skating Party.

There will be no age limit for the children who may participate in the Elk's skating party at Marsh Creek Heights, Tuesday afternoon. Every girl and boy in Gettysburg from first grade to the senior class in high school are eligible to attend.

The children have been asked to meet at the Elk's lodge room, Chambersburg street, at 1 o'clock, where transportation to Marsh Creek Heights will be provided. Persons wishing to take a load of children to the resort are asked to meet at the lodge room shortly before 1 o'clock.

For children who do not skate, the Elks are urging that they take their sleds with them, for coasting is good at the resort.

Almost three hundred skaters enjoyed the sport at Marsh Creek Heights on Sunday afternoon. The ice is between eight and ten inches thick, and with colder weather—forecast, freezing is expected to go lower before Tuesday. However, no chances will be taken, and grown-ups will mingle with the skaters during the afternoon to guard against breaking through.

After skating has been indulged in for several hours, refreshments of "hot dogs" and cocoa will be served in one of the cottages at the resort.

MANY VETS JOIN AMERICAN LEGION

29 More Members Signed For 1925, Than at Same Date in 1923 For 1924 Period.

MEMBERSHIP CAMPAIGN

That the Albert J. Lentz Post, the American Legion, will have a most successful year in 1925 was indicated in a statement this morning by Lawrence Oyler, adjutant of the local post.

Adjutant Oyler announced that up to date he had received 29 more memberships for the new year, than he did at the same date last year, indicating that more veterans of the World War were displaying and manifesting interest in the activities of the legion and that the membership roster for 1925 would surpass that of 1924.

The local post will also inaugurate a 1925 membership drive some time in January, said Adjutant Oyler, and it is the belief of the officers of the local post that the campaign will result in a number of new members signed for the coming year.

Plan Entertainment

Another indication of a successful year, in which the vets will be continuously entertained and attracted to the meetings, is the statement of Adjutant Oyler that at each meeting some form of entertainment will be provided for the veterans. A committee will be appointed for each month, a different committee of three men functioning during the twelve months. John Hewitt, first vice commander, is in charge of the entertainment program for the year, having been assigned this work by Commander Jones. Each entertainment committee will function under the supervision of Mr. Hewitt.

Definite announcement relative to the legion play for 1925 will be made within the coming month, said Mr. Oyler. A committee has been working on a possible play and cast for some time, but in November the legion voted to postpone definite action on this program until after the first of the year, because of the Armistice Day celebration and a number of other events scheduled for the close of 1924.

However, it is expected that the legion will announce a date for its 1925 presentation within a week or ten days. The first meeting of the local post for 1925 will be held January 5.

FATHER WHALEN TO ADDRESS K. C.

Father Will Whalen, of the Old Jesuit Mission, Buchanan Valley, will lecture to the Knights of Columbus at McSherrystown, tonight, at 8 p. m. He will tell the "Cases" about the Catholic Actors' Guild, of New York City, of which he was one of the earliest members, and is now one of the staunchest supporters. Helped by Father Whalen's encouragement, the late Dr. John Talbot Smith carried on his dream of the Actors' Guild, and ten years ago it became a living reality. The Guild now boasts thousands of members. Father Whalen has always advocated that church people should take more interest in stage players—the gypsying night arabs that fold their scenery and while the rest of the world sleeps quietly steal away. There isn't a bigger-hearted class of human beings on the earth than the actors, whatever their faults may be, declares Father Whalen. As a special treat for his audience, Father Whalen will interpret Valerie Bergere's famous little play, "Circumstantial Evidence."

FIREMEN HOUSE WARMING JAN. 1

Parade of Local Department to be Held New Year's Afternoon; County Force Invited.

The house warming of the Gettysburg fire department will be held New Year's Day. At this time the new fire apparatus truck will be formally welcomed into the "fold" of the fire-fighting equipment of the local department.

Aumen announced this morning that every member of the company is urged to turn out for the procession. Immediately after the parade a photograph of the company and equipment will be taken.

From four until six o'clock in the afternoon a buffet luncheon will be served in the engine house, to which all fire companies in the county have been invited. It is not known how many of the county's departments will respond to Gettysburg's invitation, but Chief Aumen stated that a large turnout is expected because of the interest manifested by other departments in the Gettysburg force.

The new service truck is ready for delivery and will be driven in the parade on New Year's Day.

Pinchot Gives His Backing To Goodnough

Harrisburg, Dec. 29.—Governor Pinchot in a statement today urged the election of C. Jay Goodnough, of Emporium, as speaker of the state house of representatives. He termed Thomas Bluett, candidate of the Philadelphia delegation, "a wet delegate and a rubber stamp for Mr. Vane" and W. C. Harer, of Lycoming county, another candidate, "a stalking horse and nothing more."

The statement followed the line of one issued by the governor Saturday in which he declared the record of Mr. Bluett was "consistently wet." In that statement he made no mention of the Goodnough candidacy.

Humboldt, Michigan, Experiences 50 Degrees Below Zero on Sunday; Temperature Drops.

(By Associated Press.)

Chicago, Dec. 29.—Gradual relaxation from the cold wave which tumbled temperatures to low records for the last 25 years over much of the country, was forecast for today and tomorrow, although, the Rocky Mountain region was today retained in a stern grip.

After receding to thirteen degrees below zero, the thermometer at Chicago climbed to five above early today, this being indicative of the changes over the zero swept areas.

Fair weather almost generally east of the Mississippi was forecast for today with steadily rising temperatures which may bring snow or rain tomorrow.

Humboldt, Michigan, had the doubtful honor of reporting the lowest temperature of the United States yesterday, 50 degrees below zero.

There was no statement as to the division.

Half an hour before the deadlock was reported the jurors were so hopeful of reaching an agreement that they asked the court for "a little more time to take another ballot."

FEATURED IN NEWS OF THE

Below: Mrs. Ralph Greenleaf and Ralph Greenleaf. Below: Ethel Lind Terry and Miss Louise Lewis.

Ralph Greenleaf, pocket billiard champion of the world, has been granted a divorce in Philadelphia from his wife, Beatrice E. Greenleaf, twenty-five, one year his senior, on grounds of cruelty, indignities and barbarous treatment. Previously she had filed a separation action in New York, in which she said Greenleaf's earnings were $300 a week. Later they became reconciled. The divorce action came as a surprise. Miss Ethel Lind Terry, American prima donna, has denied a report of her engagement to Martin B. Jones, Jr., of New York, son of the president of the Hecker-Jones-Jewell Milling Company. Mrs. Louise W. Lewis, heiress to the $60,000,000 fortune of the late Henry M. Flagler, has appealed to legal counsel and has engaged detectives to run to earth persons behind an alleged scheme to blackmail her and her young husband, Lawrence Lewis, from whom she had been estranged until their unnamed foes threatened both.

MAN, FROZEN TO STREET, PASSES

Philadelphia Police Believe He Was Struck by Speeding Motorist and Left to Die.

Philadelphia, Dec. 29.—Only a few feet from his home, Harry Naylor was found unconscious Sunday morning, blood from the open wound in his head dried on his face and his body frozen to the ground. Police believe he was the victim of a speeding motorist, who struck him and fled without rendering assistance. He died while he was being carried to the Misericordia Hospital.

He had apparently lain in the street for several hours and police are of the opinion that had the motorist carried the man immediately to the hospital his life might have been saved.

The victim was 32 years old, was a World War veteran and a skilled concert violinist.

Police have found no one who saw the accident. They at first held a theory of highway robbery, but this was scouted when it was discovered that none of the victim's valuables had been stolen.

SEED POTATO YIELD IS GOOD

Total Production in Pennsylvania Will Reach Approximately 65,000 Bushels, Report.

The total production of certified potato seed in Pennsylvania will reach approximately 65,000 bushels this year, according to a report just made public by W. A. McCubbin, Pennsylvania Bureau of Plant Industry. Out of 123 growers who entered their crops, 77 successfully passed the rigid certification requirements. Out of a total of 652 acres, 265 passed with an average yield of about 235 bushels.

This potato seed certification work was started in 1921, Mr. McCubbin explains, for the purpose of developing the potato seed resources of the state and to enable Pennsylvania potato growers to obtain home-grown seed of high-yielding strains, free from transmissible diseases. This work is conducted by the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture, Pennsylvania State College, and local farm bureaus cooperatively. Previous to starting the certification work, it was necessary for growers to depend upon sources outside Pennsylvania for their seed. This was not a satisfactory situation, especially in view of the fact that many of the mountain counties in Pennsylvania are as well adapted for the production of potato seed as any place on the continent, McCubbin states.

Requirements Among the basic requirements for certification are the following:

Only standard commercial varieties will be considered for seed production. Potatoes for certification must be grown from stock that has been previously certified or approved.

New strains may be certified or approved after testing for one year in comparison with known certified stock.

Seed potato production will be encouraged only in counties or districts which have proven themselves capable of producing good seed.

Conditions under which seed potatoes should be grown include good culture, which implies crop rotation, good tilth, freedom from weeds and the control of diseases and insects by proper spraying.

Aside from the basic requirements, each field entered for certification must pass three rigid inspections, and then a fourth inspection is made of the tubers. These careful inspections and the enforcement of strict rules regarding diseases in either plants or tubers make possible certified seed of a standard as high as that produced any place in the United States, McCubbin states.

SCOUT 'KEY MEN' NAMED

Major DeG. Van De Boe Is Named Executive For Adams, Dauphin and Other Counties.

Appointment of a scout executive and a district forester as "key men" in each of the ten districts in Pennsylvania in which meritorious service medals may be awarded to Boy Scouts for their work in preventing and fighting forest fires was announced by the State Department of Forests and Waters tonight.

One hundred medals are offered in the state, ten of each district. The key-men select the scouts who are to be rewarded from the names of those reported by scoutmasters as having performed exceptional service. The medals will be issued for award on Washington's birthday.

Meritorious service, the department explained, may have been shown in preventing fires, detecting and reporting fires, fighting fires and educating the public as to the danger of forest fires. Various activities along these lines are considered in determining the qualifications of the individuals.

The key-men chosen and the districts follow:

Armstrong, Beaver, Butler, Clarion, Jefferson and Lawrence counties—K. Jacobson, scout executive, Rochester, and Charles E. Zerby, district forester, Clarion.

Erie, Crawford, Mercer, Forest, Venango and Warren—F. C. Roud, Warren, scout executive; H. B. Rowland, Warren, district forester.

Have You Got It?

You Know What We Mean, the--

Community Smile

It's so easy to acquire--especially here in Gettysburg--the place of Prosperity and Progressiveness, of Community Spirit, Neighborliness and general Good Fellowship.

Medical science teaches us that it takes just one-fifth the muscular energy of a frown to produce a Smile. And how much more attractive we are, when our countenances are wreathed in a Smile. It makes life and all the world look brighter.

You can't help but like to do business with people who always Smilingly greet you. Why not show the world that you too, are happy to be living in this enterprising Community?

CALAMITIES ALWAYS CALAMITIES

Calamities will always be calamities, even if reading about their occurring somewhere every day, as we do in the newspapers, might tend to make us callous as to them because of their frequency which would lead us to accept them as part of the natural world.

But disasters which involve the lives of children seem to be more horrible, especially at Christmas time and when they are engaged in enjoying Christmas festivities. It is for this reason that the horrible disaster at a district schoolhouse near Hobart, Oklahoma, which claimed 33 lives, seems the crowning horror of the hour.

The more so because it was all so needless. The Christmas tree is always dangerous, both in the home and at public entertainments. Especially is this danger great when the tree is of cedar, which dries quickly, is filled with natural oils, and flames easily. Then pile on inflammable cotton, to this add lighted candles, and the fire is not only built, but the deadly train is laid.

It is all so unnecessary; for the very first thing to take into consideration is safety first. In this little school house out in the district, electric lights probably were not available, superior methods of lighting a Christmas tree without the use of the dangerous lighted candles were probably either unknown or considered too costly. And then, with all these inflammables bunched together there was no doubt carelessness; the flash of flame, the soul-trying cry of "Fire!" and, at last, the panic.

JUST FOLKS

By Edgar A. Guest

PRIDE

Not long ago I took him to Ann Arbor for a day
To see the boys at college and the football team at play;
And, oh, the crowd was good to us, and wondrous fun we had,
But somehow I've the notion now they've spoiled our sturdy lad,
For then he was a modest child, but now he makes his boast
That he is king of all the boys for he knows Coach Yost!

That's something for a 12-year old, I'm ready to admit,
But too much capital at time I fear he makes of it;
I've watched that football team of his, when arguments arise
There is no doubt he thinks himself the wisest of the wise;

He rules them with a tyrant hand, and terrifies the host
With that awe-inspiring statement, that he knows Coach Yost!

In "Math" (that's what he calls it) he admits he's only fair,
They've never marked him "good" in art, but still he doesn't care;
His lessons give him small concern, I say it to his shame,
He cannot see how scholarship can add unto his fame;
Already he's the boy at school his comrades envy most
He may not know geography, but he knows Coach Yost!

RAY OF HOPE FOR DOLLINGS VICTIMS

If Master's Reported Is Approved, Stockholders May Receive 15 to 25 Per Cent.

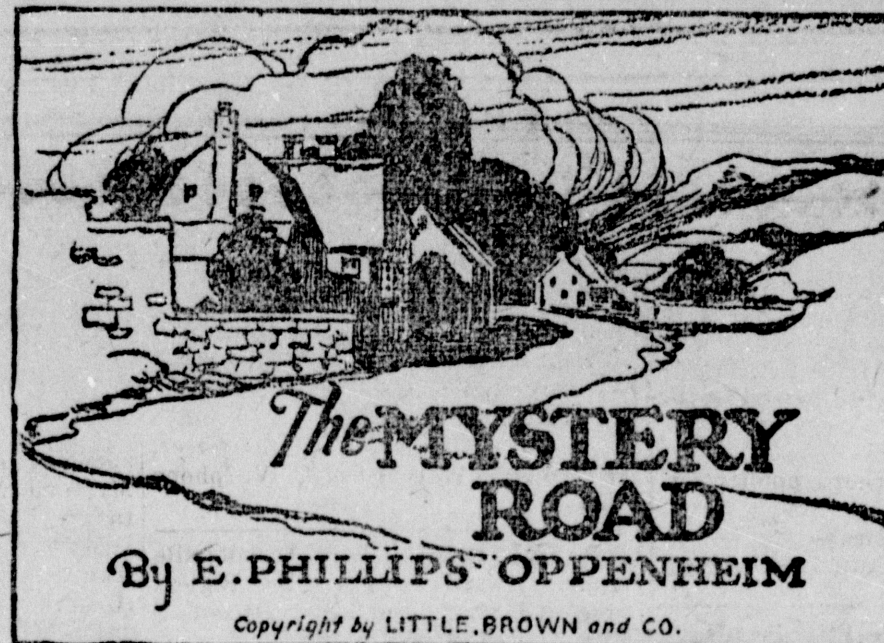

Residents of Adams county who placed money with the R. L. Dollings Company will be interested to learn that claims aggregating more than $600,000 against the funds in the hands of the receiver of the R. L. Dollings Company of Pennsylvania are refused by A. R. Geary, special master appointed by the federal court in Philadelphia, who has announced the completion of his report. He allowed claims totaling about $52,000. The two largest claims refused were those of the International Note and Mortgage Company, of Columbus, Ohio, which exceeded $500,000 and the Crane Ice Cream Company of Philadelphia amounting to $80,000.

Should the report be approved by the court the indications are that the Dollings stockholders will receive between 15 and 25 per cent of their investment, but should all the claims be allowed they would receive practically nothing.

Mr. Geary notified all creditors that if exceptions to his report were not presented by 10 a. m., December 31, it would be filed with the federal court and that thereafter exceptions could not be made.

It had seemed to her, indeed, that he had almost avoided Myrtle during his visits to Hintersleys, and she had commended him for his discretion. Myrtle was sweet and full of charm, but what use could she be as a wife to an ambitious man like Christopher? How she herself could have helped with her sympathy, her social influence, her tact, to say nothing of her great fortune! It was amazing what follies a man could commit for the sake of fancy! She could call it nothing else.

Presently she rose calmly to her feet and walked toward the house. Soon it swallowed her up, the key was turned in the door of her room, the long minutes that passed were her own. She never counted them then, she never dwelt on them afterward. The period of her agony was, in fact, short enough. Her pride came to her rescue. When her maid tapped on the door she had already bathed her eyes, and there remained nothing to denote her suffering but a little tired look about her mouth and a slight weariness of gait. She opened the door at once.

"Mr. Bent is obliged to go back to town almost immediately, your ladyship," the maid announced. "He has asked especially whether he could see you for a moment."

"Tell Mr. Bent that I shall be down in five minutes," her mistress enjoined. The maid departed, and Mary turned once more anxiously to the mirror. This was a trial which she had scarcely expected. Her fingers passed over her face, anxious to smooth out its lines. Her lips moved, as though she were uttering a prayer. She was, indeed, appealing to herself, to the strength and pride of her young

She laid her hand upon his arm. That sense of sickening joy had gone. She was a woman again, feeling nothing but sorrow for the suffering of her man.

"Christopher, dear," she begged, "Myrtle will see the truth in time. Gerald cares nothing for her, nothing for anybody except himself and his own pleasures. She will understand this presently. Remember, although she has grown so sensible and so gracious in her attitude toward life, she is really only a child."

"In one way she will always be a child," he answered sadly. "Her love will last her time, whether Gerald ever returns it or not."

"There is still your work," she went on, "great, wonderful work waiting for you. And your friends. Don't take this so hardly, Christopher."

He looked down at her with a veiled forced smile.

"Oh, I shall get over it," he assured her. "I am not the first man who has had to face this sort of thing. It is odd, though, that it should have happened to me."

"You wouldn't like me to speak to Myrtle?"

"Absolutely useless," he replied. "She was really shocked when she knew why I had come. I believe it seems to her a trifle irreligious to discuss the possibility of her caring for any one except Gerald. No, I'm not going to encourage any false hopes, Mary. I've had my answer and there's an end of it. What I want to do is to get away."

HIGH HOPES FOR 1925 BUSINESS

New York, Dec. 29.—High hopes for 1925, in some cases mounting to conviction that it may prove the greatest year in the history of American business, are held by various leaders in basic industrial and financial activities here.

Forecasts for the new year expressed by these executives agree upon the seeming certainty of a substantial prosperity. They appear further to agree for the most part that the outcome of the last presidential election and the favorable working out of the Dawes plan should prove major contributing factors. They also bank heavily upon the fortunate coincidence of great purchasing and great producing power at home and upon the promise of a wholesome recovery and expansion in markets overseas.

Youth is eminently the fittest season for establishing habits of industry.

SEAPLANE WILL SCOUR SEA FOR TWO MEN ADRIFT

New York, Dec. 29.—Two men are reported to be adrift off Ambrose light in a disabled motorboat which broke loose from a revenue cutter that was towing it toward Sheepshead Bay. Two other men, who had been taken from the motorboat by the revenue cutter, were landed at Sheepshead Bay.

Allen Lumby, 26, son of Fred Lumby, former Democratic leader of Coney Island, and Henry Miller, 28, who were rescued by the cutter, alleged that the other two men, Clifford Carl, 20, and Anthony McCarthy, 22, were left in the motorboat despite their protests, and charged that the captain of the cutter did not take proper precautions to insure their safety.

The four men left Sheepshead Bay Friday morning to fish for cod, according to Lumby. A seaplane will be sent out, Lumby declared, to search for the missing men.

Prudence is principally in reference to actions to be done, and due means, order, reason, and method of doing or not doing.

WORLD'S LARGEST MOTORISTS' ORGANIZATION

The American motorist going to England for the first time or the tenth time is always interested in the activities of The Automobile Association, which was founded in 1905, by a small body of motorists, as a protective measure against what was described then as the unreasonable police activities on many of the roads between London and the South Coast of England. The Association is now the largest motorists' organization in the world today—but it is still primarily an organization specially equipped for assisting members on the road.

In return for about $10 a year, a motor car member is given the following service:

Free assistance by Automobile Association patrols, who will be found on 20,000 miles of main road in Great Britain.

Free legal defense in proceedings under the Motor Car Act and Road Act, in any Court of Summary Jurisdiction in the United Kingdom.

Free use of roadside telephones boxes at any hour of the day or night.

Free help day or night from the mechanics in charge of road service outfits.

Free legal advice on any matter directly arising out of the use or ownership of motor cars.

Access to roadside motor fuel supply stations.

Expert engineering advice upon all matters pertaining to the purchase, repair and maintenance of cars and motorcycles.

Officially appointed agents and repairers, also hotels, in practically every town in Great Britain, where the facilities and accommodations offered have been inspected and approved by the Association.

The activities of the A. A. Patrols in England are of particular interest to the American motorist. A car bearing the insignia of the Automobile Association is always saluted by a patrol. If the patrol does not salute it is warning to the driver of the car that something is wrong and he invariably stops. Possibly he will be warned of a bit of bad road, or other disagreeable traffic condition.

In addition the patrols are competent to undertake minor road adjustments, or for major repairs, they will mount their cycles and procure aid from the nearest garage.

EXPECT CHANGE IN CALENDAR

New York, Dec. 29.—The world may be ringing in the new year on Thursday for the last time.

For the year 1928 and all years thereafter will begin on Sunday, according to M. B. Cotsworth, of Vancouver, B. C. They will have thirteen months of twenty-eight days each and an odd day in the middle of summer, held as an international holiday, he says.

As director of the International Calendar League and expert of the calendar revision committee, Mr. Cotsworth is quite sure he'll have a brand-new calendar in three years. He came to New York today on his way to Washington to explain the matter to the state department.

Mr. Cotsworth predicted that every civilized nation of the world will have accepted the revision plan in time to place the new calendar in action in 1928.

HAVE DARK HAIR
AND LOOK YOUNG

Nobody Can Tell When You Darken Gray, Faded Hair With Sage Tea.

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. It's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy soft and beautiful.—adv.

SALTS FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

When Back Hurts Flush Your Kidneys as You Clean Your Bowels.

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, sometimes get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders. You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region begin drinking lots of water. Also get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is intended to flush clogged kidneys and help stimulate them to activity. It also helps neutralize the acids in the urine so they no longer irritate, thus helping to relieve bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink which everybody should take now and then to help keep their kidneys clean.

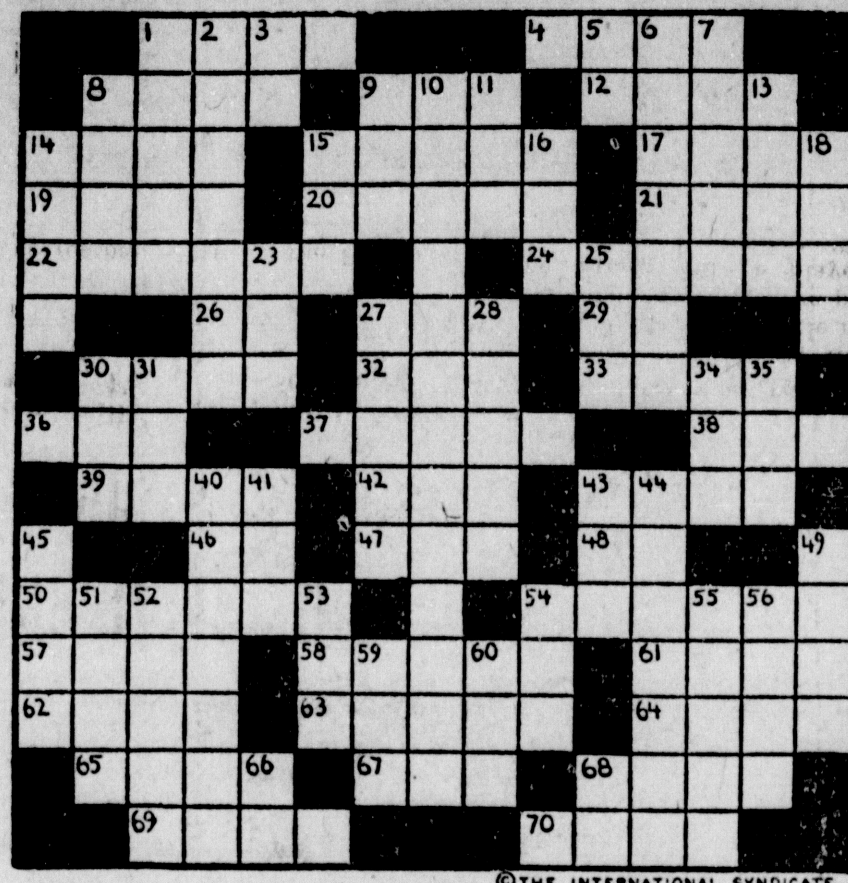

A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in trying to correct kidney trouble while it is only trouble. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.—adv.

Solution of Saturday's Puzzle.

Solution of Today's Puzzle will be published in the next issue of The Times.

Dope From Dunc

What makes a football player officially All American? That question has been puzzling some few thousand fans for many seasons. It will remain unanswered until some uniform system of choosing All American players is finally adopted.

Of course Walter Camp and the powers-that-be are not scanning this column for suggestions. Neither did they pay any attention to Stoney Mc-Linn's comment on this original suggestion when it recently appeared in the Evening Public Ledger.

But just the same it is interesting to speculate. Some day some one high in the football world may grab the idea and attract some attention.

As all fans know it is the custom of nearly every sports writer in the country to pick an All American team. And the team of one sports writer is as essentially All American as that of another.

Then, early in January of the next year, Walter Camp, so called dean of them all, picks his team which is usually noted for the large number of Yale and other "Big Three" players gracing the positions of importance. Mr. Camp is indeed a gridiron authority but no one man, Camp or no Camp, can pick an All American team and be fair to players from all sections.

Therefore "Dunc" suggests that some day the national sports writers association or some similar organization designate one sports writer in New York as the official All American picker to represent that section; one in Philadelphia, one in Atlanta, one in St. Louis, one in Chicago, and one in San Francisco. These six men would pick All American teams and the two ends, two tackles, two guards, center, quarterback, two halves and fullback receiving the highest number of votes would be official All American players. Mr. Camp could act as chairman of the committee and vote in case of a tie.

Then every star player in every section would have the opportunity to receive the recognition he deserves and some day we would be startled to read about Borrell, of Muhlenberg, or some other small college star instead of only the wonders from Yale, Princeton and dead old Haavad.

It is often said that newspapermen get no reward in this life.

Well I must say that a trip to the coast with the Penn team, as is being given Perry Lewis and a few more of the boys, is some compensation, at that.

Experience is a great thing but don't spend your life getting it.

NINE GAMES ON HIGH GRID CARD

Phoenixville High Squad Is Newcomer For 1925 Schedule; Many Players to Graduate.

The football team of the Phoenixville High School is the only newcomer on the 1925 schedule of the Gettysburg High School team as announced this morning by Walter D. Reynolds, coach.

Phoenixville's eleven is coached by Henry Bream, erstwhile star of athletic teams at Gettysburg High School and later at Gettysburg College. Phoenixville had a strong grid team this year and Gettysburg is expecting stiff opposition when the two eleven's clash for the first time, at Phoenixville, on October 10, 1925.

Coach Reynolds loses a number of his most dependable players by graduation, and a comparatively new team, composed almost entirely of second string men will be the nucleus of next year's eleven. Moser, Mc-Kenrick, Fissel, Livingston, Raffensperger, Gardner, Stouffer and Veiner are all lost to the high school through graduation. Tennant, Lightner and Baker remain as a nucleus for next year's squad, with Myers, Robinson, Warren and Utz as available material for the varsity from reserve players.

Nine games will be played next year, opening September 25, with Lykens here, and ending November 25, with York, at York. The completed schedule follows:

September 25, Lykens, at home; October 3, Lebanon, away; October 10, Phoenixville, away; October 17, Cumberland, Maryland, here; October 24, Sunbury, here; October 31, Carlisle, here; November 7, Harrisburg Academy, away; November 13, Gettysburg Academy, Playground, and November 25, York, away.

Promise is most given when least is said.
